Public Affairs Specialists participate in and supervise Army public affairs programs through news releases, newspaper articles, Web-based material and photographs for use by the news media. They serve as photojournalists and key personnel in public affairs operations from brigade to army level.

As a 46Q, You Will:

Research, write and distribute news releases on Army personnel and activities

Gather information for military news programs and publications within your unit and around the Army

Develop ideas for and write news and feature articles, and photograph news events and activities

Serve as an escort or liaison to civilian media
